May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your excellent Speech made this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude to His Majeſty for continuing to us a Chief Governor ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, as well by his amiable and domeſtic Virtues, as by his public Firmneſs, Uprightneſs and Ability.

We thank your Excellency for communicating to us, in His Majeſty's Name, that the Enemy threaten a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain. This Intimation, leſs calculated to alarm than to excite our Feelings, will ſtimulate us to evince that Loyalty and Spirit in which we truſt His Majeſty fully relies. We ſhall neglect no Precaution for preventing or defeating all hoſtile Attacks which may be attempted, and we doubt not they will quickly terminate in the Confuſion of our Enemies.

We beg Leave to acknowledge your Excellency's Attention to our Security, in procuring an additional Supply of Regular Troops from Great Britain, and in encouraging the zealous and loyal Diſpoſition, which is ſo univerſally diſplayed, to aſſociate in Arms under His Majeſty's Authority. Such Exertions, if continued with Perſeverance, will enable us to repel any Attack with the ſureſt Proſpect of Succeſs, and will preſerve internal Tranquillity, and give additional Security to Property.

Your Excellency has afforded us great Satisfaction, by announcing to us that His Majeſty has opened a Way for an immediate and direct Negotiation; and that it is his Intention to ſend a Perſon to Paris with full Powers to treat for the Reſtoration of general Peace.

The Conduct and Diſpoſition of the Court of Spain, which at preſent wears ſo hoſtile an Appearance, will, we truſt, be ſatisfactorily explained, when your Excellency ſhall be enabled to diſcloſe the Reſult of the Diſcuſſions reſpecting them. If in this Inſtance we admire His Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance, we are at the ſame Time ready to vindicate the Dignity, the Rights and the Intereſts of the Empire againſt every Aggreſſion.

When we reflect that the vaſt and extenſive Commerce of His Majeſty's Kingdoms have been protected during the preſent Year in a Degree almoſt beyond Example, we cannot but admire the Spirit and Exertions which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh His Majeſty's Navy; nor can we paſs, without a peculiar Mark of Applauſe, the Conduct of the Squadron ſtationed on the Coaſts of this Kingdom, which has defeated every Effort of the Enemy againſt our Trade with ſuch ſucceſsful Vigilance and Intrepidity.

When your Excellency points our Attention to the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, we ſee that the Exertions of his Forces by Sea and Land are there alſo conſpicuous, productive of real Glory to themſelves and of great Advantages to the Empire.

It is a real Source of Satisfaction to us to reflect on the honourable and dignified Conduct of the Emperor, and the invincible Gallantry of the Auſtrian Armies under the Command of the Archduke Charles. Their Steadineſs and Valour have wrought a material Change in the Aſpect of Affairs; and we truſt that the final Iſſue of the Campaign, not leſs diſaſtrous to France than it's Commencement was flattering, will facilitate His Majeſty's Endeavours to procure an honourable and laſting Peace for himſelf and his Allies.

The Ceſſation of Outrage which has in general taken Place in conſequence of the vigorous Meaſures we adopted in the laſt Seſſion afforded us real Satisfaction. We lament, however, with your Excellency, that good Order has not been univerſally reſtored; and we cannot but feel a juſt Reſentment againſt that Syſtem of Confederation, under ſecret and unlawful Oaths, which has ſpread itſelf in ſome Diſtricts of the Kingdom; and as we are aſſured that no Means have been left untried by your Excellency to counteract the Inſtigators of Diſaffection, it becomes us to increaſe our Vigilance, and to aid your Excellency's Endeavours with proportionate Energy.

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, the Commerce of the Kingdom, which have been recommended to our Attention by your Excellency, will be the Objects of our peculiar Care. The Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of Education and Charity, which have been uſually ſuccoured by National Benevolence, will alſo receive, at a proper Time, their due Encouragement.

We cannot but feel the ſtrongeſt Incitement to exert ourſelves for the Advancement of National Proſperity, when we reflect that, even under the Preſſure of War, our Reſources remain unimpaired. This fortunate Situation of our Country is an evident Proof that the Meaſures of Government have been wiſely directed to the true Intereſts of the Kingdom.

We look forward to the early Attainment of an honourable and permanent Peace, from the Steps which His Majeſty has taken to ſecure that moſt deſirable Event. If any ſiniſter Views ſhall defeat his benevolent Purpoſes, His Majeſty may reſt aſſured of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Support of his Crown and Dignity; and we doubt not that a brave and loyal People will enable your Excellency to fruſtrate every hoſtile Attack, and maintain the Kingdom in Peace and Security.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return your Lordſhips my moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks for this Addreſs.

It will be my higheſt Ambition to endeavour, by a faithful Diſcharge of my Duty, to retain the Continuance of that Approbation which is ſo eminently flattering to me.

To his Excellency John Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

His Majeſty's repeated Acts of paternal Goodneſs towards this Kingdom claim our moſt grateful Acknowledgments; and in no Inſtance has His Majeſty's Regard for the Happineſs of his People of Ireland been more conſpicuouſly manifeſted than in the Continuance of your Excellency as Chief Governor, who, by the Wiſdom, Moderation, and Energy of your Government, have conciliated the Affections, and acquired the Confidence of His Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland, and who, by your unremitting Attention to the Intereſts of this Country, have ſo eſſentially conduced to it's preſent Welfare and Proſperity.

We are truly grateful to His Majeſty for thus early aſſembling his Parliament, at a Period when the ambitious Projects of the Enemy threaten to interrupt the Proſperity of His Majeſty's Subjects, by making a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain; and although we feel the utmoſt Confidence in the Spirit, Loyalty, and Zeal of His Majeſty's faithful People of Ireland to repel ſuch an Attack, yet we ſhall neglect no Precaution which may preclude ſuch an Attempt, or ſecure the ſpeedieſt Means of turning it to the Confuſion of the Enemy.

We moſt thankfully acknowledge His Majeſty's paternal Care in directing an Addition to be made to the Regular Forces in this Kingdom from Great Britain; and we have a juſt Impreſſion of His Majeſty's Wiſdom and his Attention to the Safety of Ireland, in the Encouragement which His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give to the loyal and zealous Diſpoſition, which has generally diſplayed itſelf, to aſſociate in Arms, under His Majeſty's Authority, for the better Security of Property and the Preſervation of Tranquillity and good Order.

We are grateful for the Communication which has been made to us, that in conſequence of the Steps which His Majeſty has taken to reſtore Peace to Europe, and to ſecure its future Tranquillity, a Way has at length been opened for an immediate and direct Negotiation, and that it is His Majeſty's Intention to ſend a Perſon to Paris with full Powers to treat for the Reſtoration of general Peace.

We regret the apparently hoſtile Diſpoſitions and Conduct of the Court of Spain, and that they have led to Diſcuſſions, with the final Reſult of which His Majeſty has not as yet been able to acquaint his Parliament; yet we rely with the moſt perfect Confidence, that, whatever may be their Iſſue, they will afford to Europe a farther Proof of His Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance, and cannot fail to animate us in defending the Dignity, Rights and Intereſts of his Empire againſt every Aggreſſion.

In reviewing the Events of this Year, it affords us the greateſt Satisfaction to obſerve, that, by the Spirit and Exertions of His Majeſty's Navy, the Commerce of his Kingdoms has been protected in a Degree almoſt beyond Example, and in no Part more completely than by the Skill, Activity, and Bravery of the Squadron ſtationed on the Coaſts of this Kingdom.

We congratulate your Excellency on the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, which has been highly honourable and advantageous to the Empire, and evinces, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, the Valour and good Conduct of His Majeſty's Forces both by Sea and Land.

We alſo felicitate your Excellency on the eſſential Change which has been given to the Aſpect of Affairs on the Continent by the honourable and dignified Conduct of the Emperor, and by the Intrepidity and Spirit of the Auſtrian Forces under the Command of the Archduke Charles; and we truſt that the final Reſult of the Campaign will be ſuch as will materially promote His Majeſty's Endeavours to obtain a ſafe and honourable Peace for himſelf and his Allies.

Strongly impreſſed with the great Intereſts for which we are contending, we will chearfully provide for ſuch Articles of Expence as are not included in the Eſtimates of the current Year, and which the

preſent Circumſtances have rendered neceſſary; and, when the ordinary Accounts and Eſtimates of the enſuing Year ſhall be laid before us, we ſhall chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as the particular Exigencies of the Times may require for the Public Service, and for the honourable and ſecure Support of His Majeſty's Crown and Government.

We have great Satisfaction in hearing that the Expediency of the vigorous Meaſures which were adopted in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament has been amply proved by the general Ceſſation of thoſe Outrages which they were intended to ſuppreſs. We however lament that in one Part of the Country good Order has not yet been entirely reſtored, and that a Syſtem of ſecret Confederation, by the adminiſtering of illegal Oaths, ſtill continues, although no Means within the Reach of Government have been left untried to counteract it.

We ſhall not fail to perſevere in our Attention to the Manufactures, the Agriculture and the Commerce of the Country, and to extend our accuſtomed Benevolence to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other Inſtitutions of Education and Charity.

We learn with the moſt cordial Pleaſure, that the Proſperity and Reſources of the Kingdom remain unimpaired by the Preſſure of the War; and your Excellency may rely on our unremitting Attention to the further Advancement of the national Proſperity. Should His Majeſty's gracious Endeavours to procure the Bleſſings of a general Peace, upon a ſolid and permanent Baſis, not be followed by the Succeſs which His Majeſty has every Right to expect, His Majeſty may rely with Confidence on the Affection, Courage and Perſeverance of his People for furniſhing His Majeſty with the Means of fruſtrating the Deſigns of his Enemies, and for the Maintainance of the Honour and Dignity of his Crown.

Robert Thoroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Return you my warmeſt Thanks for this Addreſs; and it affords me the higheſt Satisfaction to receive ſo flattering a Proof of your good Opinion, the Continuance of which I ſhall endeavour to deſerve by faithfully repreſenting to His Majeſty the Loyalty, Firmneſs and Spirit of the Commons of Ireland, and by a conſtant Attention to whatever may moſt effectually tend to the Safety and Welfare of ths Kingdom.
